

Ride the Bus!

Free!

On September 14 people in recovery, their family members and friends will participate in a Celebration in Lansing. Participants will gather at Adado Park and walk to the Capitol Building where Kitty Dukakis, author, social worker, wife of presidential candidate Mike Dukakis will share her story of recovery.

Two buses will leave from Shar House on Chicago Rd. west of VanDyke in Warren and Meijer on Hall Rd. Shelby Twp. (park in Southwest corner of lot), Macomb County at 9:30 am (sharp!) Return time is scheduled for approximately 6:00 pm. You can register to take the bus by going to www.careofmacomb.com/events.php or call 586 541-0033 x212 and ask for Heather.

Stuff you should know:

- Bring a lunch. Food will be served at the park but we are not sure on the numbers who will attend. Play it safe and bring your own.
- Wear a blue ribbon. This indicates that you support the recovery movement. Wear a white ribbon, as well, if you have lost someone to the addiction.
- Bring your written story to share with state representatives and senators.
